

C. Carroll Heyward Chief Executive Officer

42 years with W. B. Guimarin & Co.

42 years in Construction

---

Education:	The Citadel Charleston, South Carolina BS, Civil Engineering
	University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill Kenan-Flagler Business School Chapel Hill, North Carolina Executive Program
Technical Training:	The Carrier Corporation Syracuse, New York
	The Trane Company Lacrosse, Wisconsin
Management Training:	University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
	The American Management Association New York, New York
	FMI Denver, Colorado
	Carolinas AGC Charlotte, North Carolina

Upon graduation from The Citadel in 1969, Mr. Heyward worked for the Corps of Engineers, Charleston, South Carolina District as an engineer in training. Shortly thereafter, he came to work for W.B. Guimarin & Company, Inc. as a project manager and estimator. Mr. Heyward was appointed to general management of W.B. Guimarin & Company in 1976.

He was elected President of W.B. Guimarin & Company, Inc. in 1979. Mr. Heyward has served as President of the Midlands Area of the Mechanical Contractors Association of South Carolina and later served as President of the Association. He is active in the Carolinas AGC, and has served as Chairman of the Subcontractor/Specialty Contractors Division three times. He is currently Chairman of the Subcontractor/Specialty Contractors Division for the third time and serves as a member of the Specialty Contractor Council with the National AGC. Mr. Heyward is also a member of the Trane Strategic Partner Council.

Mr. Heyward has also actively served his community. He is an active Rotarian and a multiple Paul Harris Fellow. He currently serves as the City appointed Chairman of the Columbia Museum of Art Commission, and is a past President of the Columbia Museum of Art Association. He served as a member of the Richland County Nulla Bona Committee for three years and is presently a member of the Mechanical Board for the City of Columbia. He is a past member of the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army and is a former Chairman of the Board of the Babcock Center and Foundation. He has served as a member of the Heathwood Hall School Board and as a member of the Education Committee. He was active with the Providence Hospital Foundation Board and served as Chairman. Mr. Heyward is a past President of the Sisters of Charity Foundation of South Carolina.

In addition to his service with the Columbia Museum of Art, he has recently been elected to serve on the Central Community Foundation, headquartered in Columbia, SC.